COORDINATING COMMITTEESUB-COMMITTEE ON EXPORT CONTROLSSPECIMEN IMPORT CERTIFICATES AND DELIVERY VERIFICATION CERTIFICATESMEMORANDUM BY THE UNITED KINGDOM DELEGATION

At the Sub-Committee Export Control meeting in Paris in November 1958 the United Kingdom Delegation recommended that the various members of COCOM should exchange up-to-date specimen copies of their I.C.'s and D.V.C.'s:

2. The United Kingdom Delegation at Rome will supply two specimen copies of each of their current forms to other member delegations and hope that they will, wherever necessary, reciprocate. The following table lists the specimen forms at present held in the United Kingdom Export Licensing Branch, many of which are not up to date:

Member countries issuing document	Specimen forms directly supplied		Document obtained from case papers

3. The Committee was informed on May 6 that as from 1st May, 1959 United Kingdom Import certificates are being issued from Export Licensing Branch, not Import Licensing Branch. The certificates in addition to the printed seal will in future be perforated with a symbol of a crown and the date of issue.

United Kingdom Delegation,

Paris.
